COUNCILS. His Excellency Gov. Douglas, under date of July 15, 1863, has been pleased in conformity with the pleasure of Her Majesty to as Bear River for instance. New field capissue a proclamation constituting two sepa- able of affording employment for large numrate and distinct councils—called the Executive Council and Legislative Council of Van-their making good wages, would then be couver Island. They will consist of such persons as may be appointed by Her Majesty, under Her Sign Manual and Signet, or least, or least of their making good wages, would therefore opened and occupied, and the country generally feel all the benefits of an increased population. The Government should therefore such as shall be provisionally appointed by endeavor by all possible means to encourage the Governor until Her Majesty's pleasure be known. On the 8th of October, 1862, the for a general terminus for all three lines of Colonial Secretary, Attorney General, Treasurer, and Surveyor General, or such persons cur in laying out streets and lots. Bona fide as were lawfully discharging their functions settlers should have an opportunity as soon were constituted an Executive Council. At as possible of acquiring building sites, and if the same date, the Chief Justice, Attorney it were convenient, some government officer might be placed there to give the place a Surveyor General, with R. Finlayson, D. status, and cause it to become a place of re-Fraser, A. J. Langley, constituted the Legislative Council. It is provided that when either of the Councillors becomes a member of the stitution should be given to them. Were Assembly, he ceases to be a member of this course of conduct followed, we have no the Legislative Council, but does not cease doubt that a great change would soon be to be a member of the Executive Council; and when they cease to be a member of the Assembly they become members of the Council and they can be come members of the Council and they can be come members of the Council as of the Executive. It is also stated that the unofficial members of the Legislative Council shall not exceed four in number. Mr. D. B. Ring having been appointed provisionally Attorney General, he became a member of the Executive Council and of the Legislative Council.

In order that our readers may know who constitute the Executive and Legislative Councils, we will set their names forth under Auctioneers & Commission Merchants. their respective heads, as follows: EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

W.A.G. Young, Acting Colonial Secretary; W.A.G. I oung, acting Comman Secretary; D. B. Ring, Attorney General (pro tem.) Alexander Watson, Treasurer; B. W. Pearse, Surveyor General (pro tem). When Mr. Cary and Mr. Pemberton return,

Messrs. Ring and Pearse will cease to belong to the Executive Council. LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

David Cameron, Chief Justice; D. B. Ring, Attorney General (pro tem); Roderick Finlayson, Donald Fraser, Alfred J. Langley.

When Mr. Cary returns he will take Mr. Ring's place in the Legislative Council; but if Mr. Ring is elected for Nanaimo, he will not beable to sit in that Council. In like manner Mr. W. A. G. Young is not entitled to sit there. Mr. Pearse will also cease to be a member of the Legislative Council on Mr. Pemberton's return. Whilst the temporary elevation of Mr. Ring to the Executive and Legislative Council is noted in the proclamation, no mention is made of Mr. Pearse in that document.

CONSOLIDATION AND EXTENSION.

The advent of good roads and cheap provisions has been anxiously awaited since the commencement of mining enterprises in Brit- Just landed from the "Fusi Yama," and ish Columbia. The knowledge that deposits of the precious metals were to be met with over the length and breadth of the country in greater or less quantities, but that many of them would pay for working only when pro-visions could be had at reasonable rates, has taught us the necessity of laboring for this object. Henceforth, however, the results of following out this policy will be continually appearing. We have had to wait long for this end no doubt. Many disappointments have checked our progress. Gloomy days have now and then tried our confidence in the country and in the ultimate success of the various enterprises both public and private undertaken for its development. Such has been the history of all colonies, and such the experience of most gold countries. We have had to travel the same road though perhaps we have not been so well equipped for so doing. Now however this colony is assuming a more settled and civilized appearance. The facilities for settlers and miners following their avocations have been greatly increased. Both classes are rapidly availing themselves of the advantages presented to them. Farm houses and houses of entertainment are not now few and rare on the way to Cariboo as they were even last year. People are beginning to abandon thei nomad life and taken to living in towns and townships, the tendency to congregate together and enter into extensive and permanent improvements is becoming the characteristic of the country. The wagon road has no doubt done much to effect this. The public regard it as something like a permanent base of operations; and so it is. Favorable points along it are becoming towns from which the advance may be made to subdue the rest of the country. Among the most prominent of these points is evidently the Mouth of Quesnelle, not only as a great cen tral depot for the supply of the mines of Cariboo, but also as a starting place for the North Fraser diggings and Peace River also until a Coast Route to the latter shall be opened up.

The establishment of a town at this point must be of immense benefit to a large circle of country around it. It will allow of permanent business stands being erected, where goods may be accumulated and stored for the wants of the people of the upper country. Its permanence will have the effect of rendering things cheaper. There is nothing to prevent a town like Victoria being built in that locality. Before a very long time families can go there and establish themselves. All or most of the comforts to be obtained in the lower country will hereafter be had there People will therefore be content to settle I splendid BAY MARE, rising seven down and make their piles more gradually than at present. The drawbacks as regards climate in winter are no greater than in Canada and the State of New York. The constant stream of travel and traffic passing through the place, both by the wagon road and the two coast routes, will render the place as lively as any locality in British Columbia, and taken altogether many a worse place will be found than this same central city of the future. That mining enterprise and every other branch of industrial pursuit suitable to the country, must receive a vast impetus from the location in so favorable a spot, of a centre of population, will be evihaving to come all the way down to Victoria after leaving the mines, will find a resting place much nearer the scene of their trials. where they can recruit both in health and purse, and make another attempt to earn a more extensively than it is at present.

The high price of provisions and great atraction Cariboo has for those desirous of making a rapid fortune, has operated in the by Chinamen and a few whites. we are happy to observe, have had no cause to regret their avoidance of the tempting prizes of Cariboo. The Chinamen also have been doing very well. Their operations bave extended for a long time nearly up to Fort George. Did merchants once take up their residence at the mouth of the Quesnelle, and form extensive establishments there, thos diggings would no doubt be extended much farther up the Faser, so as to embrace the sort. As soon as a sufficient population accumulates, a simple form of municipal in Invigorate the System. Vigorous digestion and pure bile produce nutricious blood, and nutricious blood a healthy frame. Does the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and the other fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the animal juices which dissolve the food, strengthen every relaxed norve, muscle and fibre, and brings the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play. Strengthen the System. The best means of imparting vigor to the broken down frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is profiered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages in

IDr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthful invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific. A Word to the Aged.

In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which require the strength and spirits, without cotalling the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females.

Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, Suttering of the heart, nervious headache, vertigo, general debility and all peculiar distributions and dorangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and enlighters the depressed subject is cheers and enlighters the depressed its use is never followed by any reaction. BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS. Mayor's Court.

(BEFORE HIS WORSHIP THOS. HARRIS, ESQ.)

Obstructing Sidewalk.—Mr. J. W. Williams appeared to answer a summons charging him with obstructing the sidewalk at the corner of Johnson and Government streets.

Mr. Williams stated in defense that he had not placed the obstructions there, and was instructed by his landlord, Mr. Lowenberg, agent fer Messrs. Joseph Bros., not to touch them himself, or allow any other nerson to do.

them himself, or allow any other person to do so. Mr. Lowenberg had written to Messrs.
Joseph Bros. on the subject, but had not yet received their instructions.

His Worship said he was aware that Mr. received their instructions.

His Worship said he was aware that Mr. Lowenberg represented the owner of the property, but the occupants were the persons liable under the Ordinance. The 1x. see, provided that all persons placing any fence, building, barrieade, or obstruction on the sidewalk, were liable to a penalty of £10 per day. Mr. Lowenberg had had plenty of time to communicate with the owners, and it was a matter of surprise to His Worship that the defendant had not himself communicated with them. He was willing to allow one week for the removal of the obstruction.

Mr. Williams said he felt satisfied the posts would have to be removed some day or other, and if His Worship would grant him sufficient time he would undertake to write for instructions to San Francisco.

and if His Worship would grant nimesurficient time he would undertake to write for instructions to San Francisco.

The Mayor said the obstruction was not a very material or pressing one, but he was determined to carry out the provisions of the ordit ance, and in order to give defendant the opportunity of removing it, he would postpose the case for thirty days.

CITY INSPECIOR VS. GOWAN.

Charles Gowan was summoned at the instance of the City Inspector for having the sidewalk in front of his premises in a dangerous state.

Defendant pleaded that they had been in the same state since July, '58. He admitted having a stairway there, but it had been placed there with the concurrence of the Surveyor General and Chief of Police, to whom the matter was referred by Mr. Pemberton, the Licensing Magistrate. No alteration had been made since.

Mr. C. J. McDonnell confirmed Mr.

Consists in the feeling that we have earned it by previous hard work. One goes out for it by previous hard work. One goes out for it by previous hard work. One goes out for it by previous hard work. One goes out for its previous hard work. One goes out for its previous hard work. One spos out for its previous hard work a high theart when one has done a good task since beakfast. Mr. C. J. McDonnell confirmed Mr.

Gowan's statement.

His Worship observed that he would be slow to undo what had been done five years ago with the sanction of the authorities; he would therefore take time to consider, and would render his decision on Monday morning next.

The Chanticleer awakes in the morning, flaps his wings, vocilerates at the top of his voice, "Woman rules he-re!" Immediately a neighboring rooster answers, "So they do he-r-e!" This is no sooner uttered than a third responds, at a considerable distance, "So they do everywhe-re! In this woman's rights or ait is significant; for old chanticleer is a keen observer and knows.

The "New Merrimac" at Richmond, where he had been equity while one of our naval vessels was cruising off the Virginia rivers, near the mouth of the Chesapeake Bay, a canoe approached in which was a man who represented that he had just succeeded in making his escape from Richmond, where he had been engaged to work on the rebel steamer New Merrimac, which he stated was a very for midable iron-plad. A trial was recently had, and she only made four knots an hour. She has in her an old engine. There are two other iron-clad propellers in course of construction, and which were expected to be completed by the 1st of September, when they would try their fortunes in another encounter with our vessels.

The accompanying particulars which we have derived from Mr. Waddington himself, will answer the premature attacks made upon this laudable enterprise now being conducted under his management and supervision. Mr. Waddington arrived in the canoe bear ing his name yesterday morning at 7 o'clock. He started from the trail on the other side of the Pass at 6 o'clock on Wednesday morning, and left the wharf at the head of the Inlet on Thursday at noon, thus making the trip by water in 31 days.

away 500 bales of wool. Some of the part were Europeans, and the rest were main! Maories belonging to the neighbourhood. The first news of the event was brought to Mr. Fyff's station on the 27th Feb., by a chie nomed Saul, who had galloped from Ameria distance of 18 miles, without drawing bridle. From his statement it would appear that seven of the natives slept in a hut to gether, and on that morning about two o'clock, when all were hushed in sleep, a o'clock, when all were hushed in sleep, a Maori, named Dulf, arose, and creeping stealthily in the darkness, emerged from the hut, reached the cook's fire place, and possessed himself of a spade. Armed with this weapon, which was worn sharp at the edges He emphatically contradicts the reports circulated here in reference to the utter failure of the trail, which on the contrary, is fast It would have been impossible to carry the by use, he crept cautiously back to where his unconscious countrymen lay, and con-trived, before they could defend themselves trail through the cañon, without tunelling a certain portion, which was altogether out of trived, before they could defend themselves, to kill two of them. He literally severed the heads from the bodies of his victims. The next victim was partially awake ere attacked, and instinctively, blanket in hand, uplifted his arms to ward off the blow. Crash! it came down on his temple, inflicting a foreful out and driving the blanket does the question for a mule train, and Mr. Waddington very reluctantly made up his mind to attempt carrying it over the mountain side. where the height though inconsiderable, (900 engineering difficulties. These have been ing a fearful cut, and driving the blanket deep ing a tearint cut, and driving the maket deep into the wound. Stunned and bleeding, the unfortunate man fell, so seriously injured, that he is not expected to recover. This triple immolation seemed but to add fresh fury to the human butcher. The previous events had occurred amidst perfect silence. The muchaer payer spoke—the night was long over the mountain and through the upper part of the canon, presents an average grade of one in nine. The sharpest grades, and which are of no length, being one in six.

Mr. Waddington expects to find this por I'he murderer never spoke-the night was pitch dark, and, beyond the dull crunching tion of road, which comprehands an embank-ment of 150 yards long, entirely completed sounds of the blows, each of which it may almost be said sent a human being into eternity, nought had occurred to break the stillness of the night or arouse the sleepers to a cense of their impending dauger. But as he attacked a fourth of their number the noise roused the others; but, ere the assassin was secured, he had inflicted some ghastly wounds on the man's shoulder and thigh. A hasty council of war was hald. Duff was lashed to on his return.

The rise in the river appears to have been pecuniarly disastrous. Ten very substantial bridges were swept away, of which three have been rebuilt, the direction of the trail altered so as to avoid three of the others, and four water heirs, about the besides which seven other bridges have been more or less council of war was held; Duff was lashed to damaged. The total amount of bridging ex ceeds 2.500 feet.

The four men who left for Cariboo with a guide given them by Mr. Waddington, reached the big lake in two days and a half, but to every body's surprise and dismay four more of the unfortunate men who had taken Kendal as a guide, made their appearance in the carmy a week greater wandering. 22 inflict summary punishment, by spearing at once.
